Noise R1 elite wireless Ear Buds

Product Description

The R1 Buds are engineered with advanced wireless audio technology to deliver an immersive and high-performance listening experience. Featuring up to 40 hours of total playtime, these earbuds ensure extended usage for music, calls, entertainment, and professional communication without frequent charging.

Equipped with powerful 11mm dynamic drivers, the earbuds produce rich bass, detailed vocals, and balanced sound clarity for an enjoyable audio experience across music, movies, podcasts, and gaming.

The advanced Quad Mic with ENC (Environmental Noise Cancellation) technology ensures crystal-clear voice quality by minimizing surrounding noise during calls and meetings. This makes the R1 Buds ideal for professionals, remote workers, online classes, and virtual communication.

Designed for gaming and video streaming enthusiasts, the ultra-low latency mode of up to 40ms provides synchronized audio with minimal delay, ensuring smoother gameplay and a better viewing experience.

Powered by Hyper Sync™ Technology, the earbuds offer fast pairing, stable Bluetooth connectivity, and seamless wireless performance across smartphones, tablets, and laptops.
